The first part of the paper is devoted to a general consideration of the subject. It is shown that the theory of the subject is not yet complete, and that there are many points which require further investigation. The author then proceeds to a detailed examination of the various aspects of the subject, and shows how they are interrelated.
 The second part of the paper is devoted to a study of the various methods which have been employed in the investigation of the subject.
 It is shown that the methods which have been employed are not yet satisfactory, and that there are many points which require further
 detailed examination of the various aspects of the subject, and shows how they are interrelated.
