Sir Ex-

Hon Jose Borges

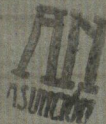

Minister for Foreign Relations

Assuncion

Mr Vice President,

It is with great pleasure, mingled with deep regret at the absence of the distinguished Chief Magistrate of the Nation, that after a long absence from my post as Minister of the United States Resident near this Capital, I comply on this national holiday with my official duty in testifying to Your Excellency of the deep interest that my Government takes in the prosperity of this country and of the high appreciation that my countrymen have of the valor and heroism of the Paraguayan people as shown in the present war - and I am sure I pronounce a national wish both of my Government and its people when I pronounce the words
 Viva la Republica del Paraguay

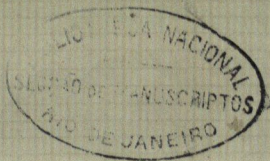

I-30,348 n. 2

The Washburn Minister of the U. S., has the honor to enclose herewith to His Ex. Srna Berges, Minister for Foreign Relations a copy of the remarks he proposes to address to His Ex. the Vice President of the Republic at the official reception to-morrow - Mr Washburn will feel obliged to Srna Berges if he will transmit the same to the Vice President and takes occasion to express his distinguished consideration
